

WHEREAS, it appears that an investigation should be authorized to determine the advisability of establishing one or more farm-trade schools in which adequate and necessary training could be provided for young men who are out of the public schools and who are without opportunity to obtain further training; therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That the Governor be authorized to appoint a commission of three men, one of whom shall be named chairman, to make an investigation and study of the feasibility of establishing one or more farm-trade schools in the State; that the said commission shall file its report not later than July first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, setting forth its findings, conclusions and recommendations, which said report shall be made to the Governor who in his discretion may transmit the same with his recommendations to the General Assembly.

SEC. 1½. That all the duties, investigations, studies and reports required of a commission by this Act shall be performed by the members of the commission authorized to be appointed by the Governor under House Resolution four hundred and one, which is committee substitute for House Bill four hundred and one.

SEC. 2. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act to the extent of such conflict are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. That this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times and ratified, this the fifteenth day of March, 1941.

1941, c. 348.

---

Resolution No. 29

A JOINT RESOLUTION TO PROVIDE FOR GIVING INSTRUCTIONS IN SAFETY EDUCATION IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

WHEREAS, the subject of safety education is receiving prominent attention by civic organizations, leading citizens and school officials of our Country, and

WHEREAS, statistics prove that many lives could be saved and accidents prevented if our school children were given an opportunity for class-room instruction in safety education against accidents in the home, on the playground, at school and upon the highways, and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of North Carolina recognizes that the State Department of Education, and school officials throughout the State, are willing to cooperate in selecting right and proper subject material upon safety to be taught in the schools of the State, now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the State Superintendent of Public Instruction be, and he is hereby, directed and instructed, to add a course of study upon the